Valley parks agencies bid for new state aid

Freeway traffic stopper

When Manuel and Eleanor Silva thought they saw a car travelling with no lights ahead of them Thursday night on I-680, they didn't realize until it was too late to stop that someone had parked a car in the fast lane just north of the Bernal Ave. interchange. Their Lincoln Continental plowed into the older car, demolishing both cars. The Fremont couple was treated by Pleasanton Fire Department personnel who responded to wash down spilled gasoline, then were transported by ambulance to Valley Memorial Hospital for examination. (Times photos by Neil Heilpern)

Pleasanton may get a big new sports park, Dublin and San Ramon may at last have their sports fields lighted and Livermore's scattering of empty lots may be turned into neighborhood parks at last — all thanks to voters' approval in November of Proposition 2, the state Recreation Bond Act.

Prop. 2 money will be going out soon — $85 million in all, some $4 million of it coming into Alameda County.

Local agencies are already drawing up their "wish lists" of projects big and small they hope to accomplish. Paul Ryan, general manager of the Valley Community Services District, confesses: "We've already sent the county a $380,000 laundry list.

"But we're willing to bargain." Most agencies in the county, except for the East Bay Regional Park District and the city of San Leandro, are asking that the money be distributed on a per-capita basis.

If the Board of Supervisors agrees, some $400,000 will be coming to the Valley for locally determined projects.

But the Supervisors are asking for a recommendation from the Alameda County Parks Advisory Commission before making their decision.

The Parks Advisory Commission, in turn, is asking for citizens' suggestions. Representatives of local agencies, and individual members of the public, are invited to a hearing in Shannon Community Center, 11600 Shannon Ave. (corner of San Ramon Road), at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday to state their views on how the funds should be spent.

There will also be two other hearings — in Hayward on Jan. 24 and in Oakland Jan. 26 — before the Parks Advisory Commission is ready with its recommendation Feb. 8.

By March 15, the Supervisors must decide whether to give out the money on a per-capita basis or in some other manner.

The money may be used for a variety of park, recreation and historical purposes, such as: acquisition and development of land for park and recreation uses, including open space, shoreline and others; construction of recreation centers, gymnasiums, pools or other facilities; purchase and restoration of historic sites and buildings.

The 1974 Recreation Bond Act funds were distributed on a per-capita basis as is being requested by most agencies this time around. The 1964 Bond Act funds went to specific projects, including Coyote Hills Regional Park and the San Leandro and Berkeley Marinas.

Here's what individual agencies are hoping to do with the funding:

Historical societies: The Dublin Historical Preservation Association and the Livermore Heritage Guild had not been notified of the Thursday hearing, although projects they are planning qualify for funding.

After learning of the meeting from The Times, Marie Cronin of DHPA, and Janet Newton of the Heritage Guild said representatives would be

City seeking just 39 more tree donors

PLEASANTON — "Just 39 more tree donors needed." That's the word on a unique community self-help venture that has seen trees planted throughout the length of the city's major boulevards over the past two years.

"Trees for Pleasanton" was launched in 1975 with the purchase of 243 sycamore trees. The money came from voluntary contributions ... local residents and former Pleasantonites, Girl Scout Troops and service clubs ... contributing $15 for each tree to be purchased, planted, staked and cultivated.

Of that first planting, 217 trees still survive. And that, according to Al Dutchover, city parks director, "is a good percentage."

This week "Trees for Pleasanton" took delivery of another 150 trees. The target areas are Hopyard and Santa Rita Road, filling in spaces left from previous tree plantings and replacing those lost to nature or vandalism.

Money is on hand to assure that all but 39 of those 150 trees will be planted. Once another 39 donors are found, at $15 per tree, then "Trees for Pleasanton" will close its books on that program. "at least for the time being," explains Judge Wm. Gale on behalf of that group. John Stanley, local PG&E manager and John Edmonds, editor and publisher of The Pleasanton Times are the other members of that ad hoc committee.

Those wishing to be included in that permanent record may send their contribution (at $15 for each tree) together with the name to be memorialized, to: Trees for Pleasanton, P.O. Box 607, Pleasanton 94566.

Community boosters

Dewitt and Lilly Ault received the plaudits of 220 community leaders and a gift from Merle Telford (r) who gave the Aults "The President's Award" for outstanding service in 1976. It was all part of the Pleasanton Chamber of Commerce installation dinner and Community Development rites at Castlewood Country Club Friday evening. Pictures of 16 other Community Development Award winners will appear in Tuesday's Times.

Amador, Pleasanton schools

UC service team evaluates operation

An extensive study and evaluation of the operations and functions of the Amador and Pleasanton school districts' business services department will culminate with a review of the report by both school boards later this month.

The report was initiated by Superintendent Bruce Newlin and the respective school boards last October and carried out in December. Cost for the detailed probe of business services, staffing and procedures was $3,900, divided equally between the two districts.

The Pleasanton Joint School District board Wednesday night agreed to review the report in joint session.

open to the public, Wednesday, Jan. 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the district offices on Main Street in Pleasanton.

A University of California Field Services team, organized by Dr. Ted Reller, made the evaluation. Working with Dr. Reller in his discussions with Doug Rose and Virginia Gorski of the school district's business and fiscal services departments were Orrin Batchelor, business manager of the San Ramon Valley Unified School District, and William Haley, from the Los Angeles County Department of Education.

The report to be aired on the 26th will include recommendations, Newlin said Wednesday.

In other business Wednesday, Rose said the original structural and soils engineers for Pleasanton School were to view the cracking in some sidewalks and buildings at the school Thursday.

They are expected to formulate cost estimates for repairing those sections cracked by ground movement over the past decade or more.

Newlin announced the appointment of Bob Brown as summer school principal and Joe Buonsante as summer Outdoor Education program director.

Trustees heard a report, complete with slides, on the "decision making" class at Pleasanton School by Lonnie Battleson and the reading clinic, by Bill Radulovich.

Board members gave final approval to policies on authorization for attendings meetings and conferences; non-discrimination in admittance, assignment and participation of pupils in educational programs, activities and services, and parental and pupil complaints and rights of review.

Authorization was given staff to advertise for bids on a landscaping project at Vintage Hills School. The board also voted to oppose Senate Bill 120, the California Child Nutrition Facilities Act, a mandate by the State of California.

VALLEY NEWS BRIEFS

Unitarians talk hookup

Members of the Unitarian Fellowship on First Street in Livermore will meet noon today to discuss the pending sewer connection contract with the city.

Located in an unincorporated area, the church is seeking sewer hookup to replace a septic tank which will not be sufficient when the church expands its facilities later this year.

When it first approached city staff and discovered certain requirements could boost the cost of their project from around $5 - 6,000 to well over $30,000.

Officers named

Sharon Kosch was selected chairperson and Phil Cooper vice-chairperson of the Pleasanton Human Services Commission Tuesday night.

In other business, commissioners chose Kosch to serve on the city's growth management committee with Barbara Hemphill as alternate. Phyllis Bullock will be the commission's representative to the Alameda County's committee on housing and community development and Christine Pearson will serve as the representative to the ACAP/ACTEB board.

Register your dog

Livermore Finance Director George H. Nolan has sent reminders to dog owners that licenses which expired Dec. 31 must be renewed by Jan. 31 to avoid penalties.

"Dog owners not receiving a notice should check their license expiration date and contact city hall if the license has expired," he told The Times.

"Those licenses expiring in June need not be renewed until July, 1977," he added.

Nolan also reminded dog owners that rabies vaccinations are required every two years. Renewal notices should be marked with the due date.

Dog licenses may be renewed by mail or in person at city hall finance department, 2250 First St., 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. For additional information call 447-2100 and ask for the finance department.

Redistrict plan set

Murray school board trustees will look at a redistricting plan Monday night that will pave the way for conversion of Frederiksen School to junior high status next fall.

They will meet at 8 at Wells School, 6800 Penn Drive, Dublin. A detailed breakdown of revised attendance areas following conversion has been laid out for the trustees. For details, see page 2.

New pipeline options

New alternatives to constructing a multi-million dollar waste water pipeline to serve the valley were presented at a meeting in Dublin yesterday. For details see Page 2.

Conflict code adopted

Pleasanton city council adopted a conflict of interest law tighter than that required by state law last week, but some language had to be changed before it could become legal.

The council, at the request of Vice-mayor Joyce LeClaire, wanted council members to adopt a policy in which council members would abstain from voting if any relatives "to the first degree" would benefit from a favorable council decision.

"Relatives to the first degree" is too vague, said the state Fair Political Practices Commission. So the council cleared up the definition by spelling it out. If a council member's father, mother, sister, brother, uncle, aunt, niece or nephew has a financial stake in the matter and will benefit to the extent defined by other state legislation, the council member must abstain.

Murray trustees consider major redistricting plan

The Murray School District Board of Trustees will act on a redistricting plan, a major step in the move to convert Frederiksen School to seventh-eighth grade use, at Monday night's board meeting.

Board members will convene at 8 p.m. at Wells Intermediate School, 6800 Penn Dr., Dublin.

The redistricting plan has been drafted by Wally Moreskine, acting assistant superintendent and director of auxiliary services for the district.

Board members will also take further action to transfer powers from Dr. Donald Williams, superintendent now on sick leave status, to active administration. The resolution to be passed Monday concerns the State School Building program. Further actions in this realm will be transferred from Williams to Heinz Gewing, acting superintendent, and Moreskine.

The latter's plan for revised attendance areas is as follows:

County planners ponder valley GP

Alameda County Bureau
HAYWARD — Debate over the controversial general plan amendment for the valley will resume before county planning commissioners at a special meeting Tuesday.

Their recommendation and a subsequent decision by county supervisors is the key for "New Town" developer Harlan Geldermann and other would-be builders.

The commission meets at 1:30 p.m., at the county public works building, 399

Elmhurst St., Hayward. Commissioners closed their public hearings last month, but may be asked by Sunol residents to reopen them. Residents there oppose Carl Nipper's plans for 96 luxury estates atop the ridge overlooking the town.

But the debate has centered on "New Town."

Alternate plans submitted by the county planning department include:

- Full development of the Las Positas Valley, Dublin and the cities of Livermore and Pleasanton to a total population of 153,000 to 183,000 in 1995.

- Development of Geldermann's New Town with no further growth in the existing cities. Total 1995 population 121,000 to 143,000.

- Growth according to the cities' general plans (about 2 per cent per year) and no development of New Town. Total 1995 population 114,000 to 142,000.

The county's current general plan calls for eventual development of the whole valley to nearly 300,000. But federal and state environmental constraints peg that maximum population at 131,000.

Both sides in the on-going controversy have been in battle before county commissioners.

Livermore, Geldermann's most vocal opponent, has been joined by Pleasanton and the Livermore Area Recreation and Park District as well as conservation groups.

MURRAY SCHOOL—The area enclosed by the county line on the north, the railroad tracks on the east, north of Firethorn Way and Brighton Drive to Lucania, and the north side of Brighton, and Langmuir Lane on the south, and the 680 freeway on the west.

FALLON SCHOOL—The area enclosed by Firethorn and Brighton to Lucania, the south side of Brighton, and Langmuir on the north, the railroad tracks on the east, the north side of Amador Valley Boulevard on the south, and the 680 freeway on the west.

CRONIN SCHOOL—The area enclosed by the south side of Amador Valley Boulevard on the north, the railroad tracks and the district boundary on the east, Dublin Boulevard on the south, and Village Parkway on the west.

Recommended as a feeder school plan is "Plan A," which was submitted at the last board meeting at Nielsen School.

Under this plan, seventh and eighth grade students in the Dublin, Fallon, Murray and Nielsen attendance areas would attend Frederiksen, and seventh and eighth graders from Cronin, Donlon and Lydiksen would go to Wells. If adopted, the plans would take effect in September.

Other items to be reviewed and/or acted upon Monday include a Title IV-B, library and counseling program application, naming of Moreskine as the environmental quality act officer for the district, authorization to go to bid for cafeteria equipment, adoption of a conflict of interest policy statement, and consideration of administration assignments for 1977-78. The latter is scheduled for a closed personnel session at the conclusion of the regular meeting.

City okays attorney to defend policemen

PLEASANTON — The city council authorized the hiring of Livermore attorney Jack Noonan to defend two city policemen accused in a $1.1 million police brutality suit last week.

In authorizing the hiring of Noonan, the council took pains to point out that contrary to what the public might believe from earlier press reports about hiring an outside attorney, the city is in no way abandoning its officers.

Councilman Ken Mercer, who said he got four or five calls complaining the council "left the officers in the lurch," stated the council is standing behind the officers 100 per cent.

Amador Valley High schedules

Amador Valley High School students may pick up their Mill Scheduling packets for Spring semester, Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday in the counseling office.

The Spring Mill is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 20, and Friday, Jan. 21. Students who fail to pick up their packets before Thursday will be given late registration appointments. The counseling office is open from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

It's necessary to hire an outside attorney because at some point in a trial against the officers, the interests of the city and the officers might diverge. For example, the court could find that the officers acted outside the scope of their city duties, City Attorney Ken Scheidig told the council a few weeks ago when he asked for authorization to find an outside attorney.

Scheidig recommended Noonan, one of two attorneys nominated by the officers themselves. The other attorney selected by officers was James Crew of Hayward. Noonan charges $50 per hour and $250 to $300 per day during a trial. Crew charges $60 per hour, both pre-trial and during a trial. Scheidig prefers Noonan because his office is in the Valley and that should make him easier to reach for conferences.

"I don't care what it costs, we have to support these men," said Mercer.

LAVWMA workshop

New pipeline data studied

DUBLIN — A public workshop held yesterday at Shannon Center to explain progress in the sewage disposal crisis instead brought forth new information on alternative systems and funding options not before discussed.

State government representatives told the presiding Livermore-Amador Valley Water Management Agency Board that continued grant funding even after announced cut-off dates is possible if a revenue bond measure now being drawn up gets voter approval in June of next year. In addition, he said he was "certain more federal funds will be made available by Congress next year."

LAVWMA officials Friday learned of an existing pipeline running from the Sunol Water Temple to near San Francisco Bay which is now being considered for use as a wastewater disposal pipeline.

The Zone 7 water management board, which supplies water wholesale to the Valley, held a special meeting Friday night and announced yesterday it would contribute $10,000 toward a study into alternative disposal methods. Representative Archer Futch asked LAVWMA members to stop worrying about time constraints and instead find a disposal method emphasizing energy conservation.

In turn, LAVWMA directors Helen Tirsell said "Zone 7 has known about this project for two years — where have they been?" She wanted to know why the Zone board had not instituted demineralization of fresh water, so the disposal problem had not arisen in the first place.

Robert Allen, Valley representative to the BART board of directors, took the microphone and asked assembled state officials if the demands of federal water quality laws were unreasonable. He stated his vote in the November election went against the export pipeline measure because he "did not have enough information on it."

A project engineer said a wastewater export line to Suisun Bay is feasible, would be "not a lot longer" than the proposed line to San Francisco Bay, and would have higher capital costs but lower operational costs.

Despite encouraging prospects of new options, however, project staff still feel certain the 22-mile export pipeline to tie in with the super-sewer and dump wastes into San Francisco Bay will still be chosen as the answer. Deadlines of Feb. 28 for a new bond election, March 31 to tie in with the super-sewer, and Sept. 30 to insure 87.5 per cent grant funding dictate the need to pick the only project that could possibly be designed by Sept. 30, due to a quarter million dollars already spent for preliminary engineering.

Grant funding will only be given for the most cost-effective project. The 22-mile pipeline was earlier chosen, and a preliminary review of the five top alternatives again shows the export line as the most acceptable project.

Previously estimated at $44 million, the line has been recalculated to cost $36.7 million initially, and $4 million annually in operational costs.

Valley parks seek state funds

sent to discuss proposed projects, including a cluster of restored historical buildings being gathered in Dublin and restoration of the one-room May School outside of Livermore.

Livermore Area Recreation and Park District: Some $225,000 is expected to come to this agency. Their first priority will be to complete restoration of Ravenswood, the Victorian estate in southern Livermore; and to develop several neighborhood park sites in the city, says Lowell Bergman, park superintendent.

Bergman plans to accompany LARPD chairperson Lois Ellsaesser and general manager Bill Payne to Thursday's hearing although their plans have already been submitted to the county.

Pleasanton: Bob Caporuso, superintendent of the Department of Recreation and Human Resources, will be attending to put in his plug for per capita allocation of funds.

Pleasanton would get some $100,000 on that basis, probably to be spent on a major project such as a sports park. The Park and Rec Commission, headed by teacher Jerry Wifley, will make a recommendation.

Valley Community Services District: Paul Ryan, general manager, is anticipating some $80,000 to come to VCSD from the bond act.

His agency has a $380,000 list of priorities topped by lighting the sports grounds in Dublin and San Ramon and installing bleachers. The VCSD board is scheduled to discuss it at their Tuesday night meeting and will send Ryan and board member Lila Euler to Thursday's hearing.

Stylist enjoys hair-raising show biz

By Lucy Hobgood-Brown

Lynn Visbeck leads an exciting life. Some days she works 15 hours straight in freezing weather with little shelter. If a herd of cattle stampedes too close for comfort it's no surprise. She often rises at 4 a.m. with the sobering knowledge that she still has to commute over an hour to get to work. What could be worth all this? Show biz!

The trim Livermore housewife claims that "being in the right place at the right time" has led her to many of the opportunities that have made her life more than a little unique. Fifteen years ago, Lynn piloted a plane to Arizona and attended a convention that was to change her lifestyle. A licensed hairdresser and cosmetologist, Lynn met top Hollywood stylist Lorraine Roberson at the convention and they became fast friends.

Once hair stylist to Lana Turner, Lorraine has been involved with the movie industry for close to 40 years. At her invitation, Lynn began visiting Hollywood movie sets, often lending a hand whenever she was needed. Before she knew it, she was working on a consultant basis on such films as "McClintock" with John Wayne and the Carol Burnett - Walter Matthau hit "Pete and Tullie."

Her valley home is filled with autographed pictures from Alfred Hitchcock, Julie Andrews and Clint Eastwood. In fact, it was Eastwood's "Outlaw - Josey Wales" that gave the hairdresser little rest (she had to make 160 Indian hairpieces look authentically post - Civil War) hours as a Pink Lady, working in Valley Memorial Hospital's emergency room. She is also an avid doll collector and with the help of various Brownie troops cleans and dresses castoffs for orphanages.

Weekly tea parties with friends of English heritage inspired the group to form a valley chapter of the National Society of Daughters of the British Empire. Lynn, who also lectures for women's groups on beauty, practices what she preaches to many of the organizations. "I tell them to get out and get involved," she admits. "It can get very lonely and depressing just sitting around the house."

In 1968 Lynn took advantage of her background in modeling and hirdressing to help organize Jeanette's School of Modeling in Livermore. Although the school eventually went out of business, Lynn recalls that she "enjoyed working with people who didn't know much about makeup or hair. I like helping people realize their potential."

Another project the out - going blonde — who still speaks with the appealing New England twang of her childhood — has undertaken is floral arrangements. Some of her first flowers went to the convalescent hospitals in Livermore, to patients who had no relatives to remember them on their birthdays. Since then she has given many of her fragrant gifts to movie stars she has worked with — scrapbooks filled with memorabilia also include thank you notes from Julie Andrews.

The Visbeck family is Lynn's first priority,

Lynn visits with Myrna Loy and old friend Lorraine Roberson on the set of "Airport." Lorraine is a top Hollywood hairdresser who introduced the blow - dry cut to Julie Andrews long before it was fashionable.

or peace of mind (that's when the cattle stampeded).

Lynn's family takes her absences from home with great aplomb. "They know I enjoy what I'm doing. My sons and my husband are very involved in community activities — we all like people."

A resident of Livermore for eight years, Lynn says, "It's a great place to raise a family." Not all of her time is spent in the company of movie stars, however — Lynn has totaled up over 500 though. She has been an active den and team mother for the various clubs and leagues her two sons have belonged to over the years. David, 23, isn't one to sit back and watch the world go by either — he is now in the Guinness Book of Records as a dart - throwing ace!

Does Lynn's husband wish she were a little less involved with living? "We just celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary," she laughs, "so I guess it means something that we've been together so long!

Funny BART

The idea of a BART director suggesting that those dedicated servants of the people NOT be paid their $50 - per - meeting stipend just because such a meeting has to be dismissed for lack of a quorum!

Next thing you know there'll be a rapid movement through that transit system to make the board president account for his expense money, or worse — deny expense allowances to BART directors simply because they didn't undertake the trip listed on that expense sheet.

Let's face it, Bay Area Rapid

Transit is one of the last really funny bureaucratic experiences left. Sure it cost us a couple of billion bucks, and sure the system keeps running in the red while the trains run uncertainly off into the night (but never on Sunday).

But is that any reason to start denying BART directors their fifty bucks per meeting, even for a Non - meeting?? As our own Robert Allen put it ... "The public enjoys seeing us here, regardless." Enjoys is hardly the word. We think they're positively hilarious.

Mail boxers

Let's hear it for David Ortiz!

He fought the great battle of postal delivery, and he won! It's but one more skirmish in the ongoing struggle to make sense of the bureaucracy which controls this nation's mails, and which lately has been bureaucratically bungling its way through one "final order" after another on the subject of where those carriers shall not deliver our mail.

David Ortiz of San Ramon finally tired of it all. He placed his mail box on the front of his house, and he defied the United States Postal Service to make him take it down.

He did not take it down, but they did resume daily mail deliveries to his home, and into that box.

In saluting Mr. Ortiz we remember also Tom Eager and Tamra Beeler of Livermore, and those hundreds of Pleasantonites who fought an earlier "post office box battle" ... all dogged Americans determined to prove that government and its agents are not necessarily right.

We can't always win those battles, but it is important that we never stop trying. That's the American way.

Shoplifters

As with the neighbor who cheats a little on his income tax or the friend who squeezes the insurance company for an extra few bucks, most of us view shoplifters with a "Who cares?" attitude.

Since you are among those consumers picking up the $200 million annual loss resulting from shoplifting, maybe you should be caring a great deal more. And so too should the store managers and clerks who, up to now, have been reluctant to pursue and detain even the most flagrant of thieves in their store.

"Rather let them have the merchandise than face a lawsuit for false arrest," is the typical shopkeeper's response. Now there is legislation in California that makes it easier under the law for a merchant to "detain for the purpose of conducting an investigation" a person suspected of possessing stolen merchandise.

While there are still plenty of safeguards against unlawful search and seizure (and plenty of reason to suspect no business person is going to abuse any customer) still it is reassuring to know that at least the most flagrant of shoplifters might now be detained without the corresponding threat of a suit.

Those who pay our way along today's high - cost retail route should have some assurance that we aren't, in addition, paying for the pilferage of those who want a free ride, at our expense.

County bored

First the bad news: Alameda County's Board of Supervisors' meetings will be longer. They may meander right past the lunch hour as new board chairman Charles Santana of Hayward actually lets the public have its say.

That's the good news.

The board has been badgered too long by brawling barristers more intent on honing their debating skills than listening to the public. Former chairman Fred Cooper, his propensity to answer questions not directed to his corner as lively as ever, has left his mark. He has yet to be curbed.

"Charlie the charmer," as Santana has become known in the past three weeks, apparently has taken his bail bondsman's experience as a guide in dealing with attorneys: Always count your fingers after shaking hands. Three of the board's five members are lawyers.

"Charlie," as he likes to be called, even lends a light lilt to the board's proceedings.

But his one-liners that spreckle board meetings are not simply facetious. They serve notice on the public — and his peers — that the politician is supposed to be "one of the people," not a doctrinaire autocrat. The trend should be contagious.

The next two years will be a welcome change from the allegedly august proceedings of the past.

The week in retrospect

Pardon wrong

President - elect Jimmy Carter's move to pardon those who fled the draft during the long years of the Vietnam war may set up the former Georgia governor for the first backlash of his Presidential term.

The role of the "draft resisters" has been an emotional one from the time when the initial U.S. citizens started going underground — to avoid the draft "as a matter of conscience" or because it didn't blend with their particular life style.

Carter's announcement during the campaign that a pardon or amnesty action would be one of his first priorities if he won election apparently did not hurt him in collecting votes.

If he in fact suffered a net loss of votes over this issue, it certainly didn't show.

But it makes Carter's prospective action to pardon these war resisters no less conscionable to millions of Americans who believe what these modern day "draft dodgers" did was wrong, not just by law but morally.

These persons, many claiming it an "act of conscience," will find it difficult explaining their actions to the millions who served their country during that most unpopular of wars — many thousands forfeiting their lives or becoming incapacitated physically and/or mentally.

There can be no measurement of how many of the war resisters did so as a true "act of conscience," and how many followed the leader or found such a plea convenient.

What started as a trickle of young citizens going to Canada and other foreign areas soon became a flood.

Conscience ... or cold feet? The flight of these young men was encouraged by various groups within and outside this country. Additionally, some leaders of government condoned if not completely supported such actions, as did church men and educators.

The war and subsequent flight of these young men came as the U.S. was starting into an ultra-liberal period.

The war and all its attendant actions here in the United States served to polarize us as never before. It has now pervaded every area of our lives whether we realize it or not.

As we reach the midway point of our 201st year, this country finds itself "as-one" on the surface.

Carter's action to grant amnesty or a full pardon will serve to bring this emotional issue to a head.

It will be a sorry and unfortunate act, however, if he chooses to grant these law resisters anything approaching a full pardon or amnesty.

San Ramon students

Editor, The Times:

The January 10 issue of "The Catholic Voice" carried an article by Jeffrey Lewis on California High School which alleges "up to 70% of the student body uses drugs," based on interviews with what is represented to be a cross section of the Cal High Student body. As a knowledgeable parent involved in the day to day activities at Cal High I am appalled that this publication would lend it's prestige to printing such ... an article.

I worry that people will accept as fact what this article says, because of the nature of the publication. There are students who use drugs and smoke pot ... however, this group is very small at Cal High ...

I get the feeling ... that the 15 students discussing the drug problem were putting the writer on ... Instead of belittling the school for the behavior of a very small minority, I feel the effort is better spent giving well deserved praise to the majority who are dedicated, energetic, happy and well adjusted kids.

Should any of you parents have any doubts, come to school sometime and listen to the choir, catch the skill of the drama class on stage, see and taste the goodies the kids make at the Winterfest, hear the band. Go to the games, watch the athletes and the cute girls with pom poms, better yet come to school ... while the kids are about their business of learning.

The families of California High School, who are gritting their teeth and trying to cope with almost every kind of adversity, financial and otherwise, certainly don't need to be frightened unnecessarily by reading a story about life on campus that is not true.

To The Times,
Attention Jean McKenna
Dear Jean:

My admiration and thanks to you for your very well-done article on Emily Dezzani in the Sunday, January 2 issue of the Times. You captured the spirit of the American Cancer Society's Reach - to - Recovery program as well as I have seen.

To think it wasn't too many years ago that a reporter wouldn't touch a subject about a cancer operation nor would a woman want it to be known that she had a mastectomy.

Thanks to reporters like you, former patients like Emily Dezzani and newspapers like the Times, women are aware that this operation does not stop one from living — and in effect makes life that much more valuable.

Berry's World

Coffee prices are soaring. Upward. Americans are in a fix. Or in need of a fix. "I'll keep buying the stuff no matter how high the price goes," Mr. Caffeine says on the tube.

He reflects the nation's mood. Trapped between the world's coffee cartel and our 200 - year hangup on the bean.

Julio Koguisshi is not displeased. He grows coffee, in Assal, Brazil. One thousand acres of the stuff. Julio Koguisshi has 8000 bags of unhusked coffee beans stored away in his barn. "I will wait for the price to go even higher."

Julio knows what our State Department dare not admit. When it comes to coffee, or gasoline, Americans would rather pay than twitch.

We are twitching a lot, these days. Reliant for our basic needs on a world that has finally adopted the Yankee free enterprise system. We taught them, from Marshall Plan to Peace Corps.

"It is all based on the law of supply and demand," the eager young college kids of the Kennedy era were telling the Julio Koguisshi's of the world. Our kids came back, discouraged. "Those foreigners simply don't understand the American principle of free enterprise."

Take heart, college kids. Your lessons were not lost. The Arabs proved remarkably adept at applying Yankee shrewdness against their very best customers. Now the poor, dumb farmers of Brazil have seen the light. Or the bean. "I will wait until the price goes even higher," Julio Koguisshi says. Julio figures to make a million bucks, or more, from his barn - full of coffee beans.

The government of Brazil remains neutral, smiling a little as the men from Hills Brothers and Folgers come crawling, bidding for the barn full of beans that Julio Koguisshi refuses to sell.

Personally, I am not one of those caught up in the Great Coffee Fix of 1977. Along with cigarettes and unscheduled sex, coffee is a vice of which I no longer partake. Not that I ever really had the habit ... coffee drinking, that is.

The memory of that first "coffee pot" brought into our prairie abode by an older sister (who, mother observed, "gets all kinds of wild ideas") is still fresh. I can smell the aroma yet. Hear the blessed thing going "ker - THLOOP, ker - THLOOP" on top of the kitchen stove. It was all very exciting.

Alas, I was still then of the Ovaltine generation. "Coffee is - NOT for little children," older sister said, authoritatively. And so I was not allowed to partake; but I could still breathe in the intoxicating aroma, watch the steam puff upward with each "ker - THLOOP."

I can remember then wishing, with all my naive heart, that Ovaltine might be caught up in some terrible embargo, to then allow coffee to be adopted as the national drink. Or at least in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan.

Later, when I graduated up to Postum, my views on hot beverages of all kinds was one clouded by a fear of liquid ingestion ... including sulphur and molasses forced down on spoonful of honey. Still later came the tea era. Herein I was indoctrinated into that most civilized of British habits, the careful brewing of black Lipton leaves to produce a drink that was not only palatable but, I was later to learn, beneficial to the arteries and helpful for the morning movement.

So, as I say, coffee has never been a big part of my life. It appears now it never will be, not at two dollars per pound.

The growers credit not the fortunes of free enterprise for this terrible shortage of the bean. They look rather to God, and other non - drinkers of the brew.

"It is the terrible frosts in Brazil," says Jose' Koguisshi, a brother of you - know - who. "It is the civil war in Angola," says General Koguisshi, a distant cousin. Or the earthquake in Guatemala, the floods of Columbia, the drought in the Ivory Coast. Everywhere, God is at work destroying the coffee crop. And so, my Yankee friend, the supply dwindles. While the demand increases.

"It seems that in the last 18 months all the seven plagues of biblical Egypt have befallen the producers of coffee." That is the opinion of one Ricardo Falla Caceres, he of the El Salvador Caceres family. Brother - in - law to Julio Koguisshi. The Henry Ford of the coffee bean business.

Henry Ford was never inspired to charge off the uncertainties of the automobile to the heavenly assembly line. He knew not to assign to Archangel Tin Lizzie the blame for any increase in the price of a Model T.

And yet, Henry Ford became a very rich man.

I look for even greater things from Julio Koguisshi.

St. Clare's priest

Editor, The Times:

On behalf of the people of St. Clare's Episcopal Church, I would like to thank the Times for their sensitive and thorough coverage of the ordination of the Reverend Susan Bergmans on January 5, 1977.

In particular, I thoroughly enjoyed your editorial which recognized the significance of Susan being ordained in the midst of her own Christian community. The joy and warmth of the occasion were clearly identified and the minor protest kept in perspective.

I might add that no member of St. Clare's ever objected to Susan's ordination either to herself or by taking part in the protest that night. Her priesthood was totally supported by her Christian community.

Thank you,
The Reverend
William A. Smith, Vicar
St. Clare's Episcopal Church

The coach!

Just who runs our public high schools? Don't look in the principal's office for an answer, say disenchanting educators — you can forget the superintendent and the school board, as well.

Real power, they say, is out on the back lot, in a corner of the boys gymnasium. It rests with the physical education teachers — those comical buffoons who always wore white socks with black shoes, then had the audacity to flunk us for mixing gray and red sweat clothes.

In the faculty lounge they'll tell you P.E. swings the biggest stick over matters like classroom assignments, curriculum, and even the school budget.

It's a lively topic because campus clout is an issue in the court case of a demoted San Ramon High School educator.

Boyer August is suing the San Ramon Valley Unified School District, claiming a violation of free speech. He was demoted from dean of boys to a teaching post in 1975. The district's lawyer said August was dismissed for "performance problems." August claims he was dinged for speaking out against conditions at San Ramon High.

His attorney, Michael McCabe, said in court that a "macho" boys' physical education department dominated school policy and that August lost his position trying to change that by writing letters to newspapers and speaking out at school board meetings.

August isn't the first to charge that a school's game plan is set down in the coaches' office.

A former Times staff writer, who served on the English faculty in a Walnut Creek high school, always insisted that it was the tailback who wagged the dog.

He once forwarded an innovative classroom proposal that included jogging, followed by essay writing. The aim was to transmit physical sensation to written expression. It was nixed, he said, by a wary P.E. department, which either felt it held a monopoly over jogging students, or thought the idea a Leftist plot.

P.E. power is a likely concept in school. Many administrators have coaching backgrounds and sympathetic ears for their brethren in the sweat profession.

Athletics creates the greatest parent interest at a high school, and anything that involves the community pleases the boss.

What pleases him more is revenue, and of course the football and basketball teams are a school's biggest moneymakers.

Money, influence, friendship — all the ingredients for political pull are in the lockerroom.

But the power structure is shifting in high school — even at August's school.

Girls are flexing their muscles athletically, and the "macho," P.E. department hasn't been able to resist.

Students are questioning budgets which funnel so much money to the varsity teams.

At San Ramon last year they replaced the football coach, purported to be the most powerful man in the school district.

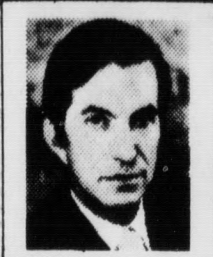

He was relieved by a young principal who had been a wide receiver on his college football team.

Changing attitudes reflect a new mood in all of sports. Professors no longer have to worry about building a university the football team can be proud of. The emphasis has shifted, except perhaps in Columbus, Ohio where they'd boo a cancer cure if it got more ink than Ohio State's win over Northwestern.

As long as the football team fills the stadium, it will have a friend in the administration office. It's no longer teacher's pet, however.

Dr. Lamb

No drug cure for arthritis

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — A year ago I had sudden pain on the inner side of my right knee. I thought I had cracked a bone. I couldn't even stand my hosiery pressing against it, so I had to go bare-legged at age 71, to the doctor.

The doctor said at once it was osteoarthritis, but I wanted an X ray and it showed small deposits of calcium.

I took Motrin three times a day and it worked like magic. In a week I cut down to two a day and then to one. After three weeks I felt no more pain. It hasn't come back since. It could be that mine was caught in time. The doctor didn't promise a cure, only to take the pain away, but since it has not returned in almost a year I feel it is cured.

I was surprised to read in your column that you still favor aspirin, since so many doctors are against it as aspirin is supposed to be hard on the heart.

I just thought you would be interested to know how well Motrin worked for me.

DEAR READER — Thank you for your thought. The truth is that Motrin does not cure arthritis at all. It relieves pain as your doctor suggested.

You are fortunate to have had no more pain. It is possible that your pain was not even caused by arthritis. Many people in your age group will have changes that can be seen on an X ray even if they have no symptoms or pain at all. The presence of such changes does not prevent a person from having tendonitis or any number of other disorders that may be of short duration. Motrin is used to relieve pain — whether it is caused by arthritis or something else. And arthritis pain can be intermittent, disappearing spontaneously for periods of time.

I don't know where you got the idea that aspirin is hard on the heart. That is not true either. Quite the contrary, aspirin decreases the tendency of the blood to clot and may prove to be helpful in preventing heart attacks. There is a large national study now in progress to evaluate the possible use of aspirin to prevent heart attacks.

I do not know what your sample of doctors represents but the accepted opinion of scientists and specialists in arthritis is that Motrin is no more effective than aspirin in the relief of pain. Its value in treating inflammation may not be as good unless used in larger doses than recommended for safety.

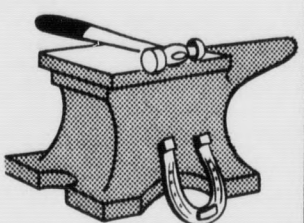

Motrin and some other pain relieving medicines are preferable to aspirin in some people — for example those asthmatics who are prone to asthma attacks if they take aspirin. Some preparations are better than aspirin for simple pain if there is any danger of bleeding, as from a peptic ulcer or other medical problems. Still I'll stand by my original contention that none of these medicines currently available are any better than aspirin.

Johnny Wonder's QUESTION CORNER

Q. "HOW DID THE BLACKSMITH GET HIS NAME?"

JIM LANKFORD
INDEPENDENCE, MO

A. A SMITH IS A PERSON WHO MAKES THINGS OUT OF METAL. THE "BLACK" IN THE BLACKSMITH'S NAME COMES FROM HIS WORKING WITH IRON, ONCE KNOWN AS BLACK METAL.

The blow of a forge and the ringing clang of hammer against anvil were familiar sights and sounds of the old-time blacksmith's shop.

A "smith" is a person who makes things out of metal. The "black" in the blacksmith's name comes from his working with iron, once known as "black metal."

Therefore, a blacksmith is a smith who works with iron, while a goldsmith is one who makes things out of gold, and so on.

Until well into the 1900s, the village blacksmith's shop was a familiar place. The leather-aproned blacksmith hammered pieces of red-hot metal into shape on his anvil.

Making horseshoes was a common task of the old-time blacksmith. He also made and repaired such things as wagon wheels and farm tools.

There are few blacksmith shops today. Forging machines have replaced the blacksmith's hammer.

About all that's left for him is his farrier's task — the shoeing of horses.

Oswald: "South was pretty proud of his bidding. He had opened with just one spade and merely rebid two diamonds with a hand that might well have been opened with a forcing call. Then after North had jumped to three spades, South went into Blackwood and bid seven after his partner had shown three aces."

Jim: "This use of Blackwood with a void is not generally recommended, but it worked well this time. Unfortunately, the combination of a careless play at trick one and a bad trump break nullified the good bidding."

Oswald: "All South did at trick one was to play dummy's ace of diamonds. Then he stopped to consider the chance of a 4-0 trump break, but it was too late to do anything about it. He could play dummy's ace of spades, get the bad news and then go down because he could not lead through the jack-ten more than once."

Jim: "Just a little thought at trick one was all he had needed. Then he would have let the diamond ride around to his own hand, led a spade to the ace, cashed one high club to get rid of his heart loser, led a second spade, covered the jack or ten, returned to dummy with the ace of diamonds, held his breath until East followed, led dummy's last spade, finessed and claimed."

Ask the Jacobys

A Connecticut reader wants to know if the bridge term: "Grand slam" was derived from baseball or vice versa.

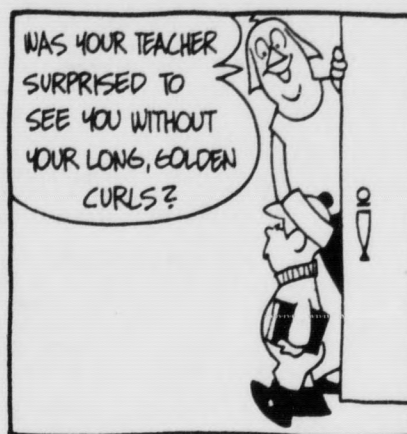

There is no connection. The bridge term "slam" comes from the word "Slamm" which was given to certain forms of whist. It shortened easily to slam while the baseball term comes from the simple word "slam."

Amador girls breeze, place 3rd in Classic

CONCORD — Amador Valley High School's girls basketball team took a strong third in the Concord Classic Girls' Basketball Tournament last night, Casa Grande, 59-26.

Amador was paced by Carmon Macon with 17 points. Jayne Kuhns and Sheryl Withoft each added 14 markers for the winners. Amador Valley led just 15-14 at the first quarter break but went on a 12-4 blitz in the second period to open up a 27-18 lead at halftime.

The Dons coasted the rest of the way, scoring 19 points in the final quarter to clinch the victory.

In a sixth-place contest Monte Vista fell to Piner of Santa Rosa, 43-42.

A bad second quarter proved to be the downfall of the Mustangs.

Monte Vista was outscored 14-4 in that period and never fully recovered from that slump.

Karin Fischer, a 5-9 athlete, scored 17 points to spark the losers. Carol Dolsby added 11.

In Friday's competition Amador was edged out by defending Diablo Valley Athletic League champion Clayton Valley, 44-41.

Clayton outscored the Dons 14-10 in the final period to clinch the victory. Amador had jumped off to a 11-8 first quarter lead and led 21-16 at halftime but the Eagles went to work in the second half, outscoring Amador 28-20.

Monte Vista got back on the winning track after its loss Thursday, dumping Ygnacio Valley, 73-33.

The Mustangs went wild in the final period.

Takes first place

Amador rips Dublin

By Gary Brown

It looks like the same old story in the East Bay Athletic League basketball race.

That "old story" is the Amador Dons streaking to the title. Amador Valley has won the EBAL championship three straight years and took a big step towards winning a fourth one with a 53-43 win over host Dublin Friday night.

The victory gave the Dons a 4-0 record, one game ahead of Granada and San Ramon, which lost to Livermore, 59-57.

While the Dons weren't exactly awesome in toying Dublin they played steady consistent ball and led almost the complete contest.

The score was tied 10-10 with 2:31 left in the opening period but Chris Kearns and Don Hall hit jumpers to put Amador ahead 14-10 and the Dons never trailed after that.

Amador Valley led 16-12 at the first quarter break, hung on for a 26-22 margin at half and put together an excellent quarter of basketball in third the third period to take a 42-28 lead at the quarter break.

After Jon Batchelor hit a juniper with 5:51 left in the third period to close the Don margin to 28-24, Amador ran off a 9-2 blitz which gave it a 37-26 lead and for all intensive purposes, the ball game.

Kearns got hot in the second half scoring six points in the third period and eight in the fourth for 14 of his game-high 18 markers.

Amador Valley reached its largest lead of the night with 5:19 left in the final quarter when reserve guard John Sevo fired in a jumper to make it, 46-30, Dons. Dublin sliced the Howard's points came at the charity stripe.

Don mentor Skip Mohatt had mixed emotions about his team's victory.

"We were steadily improving until tonight," he frankly admitted. "However, we ran into a team that really wanted to play tonight."

"John Sevo came off the bench and did a fine job for us," Mohatt continued. "He didn't score much (two points) but did a fine all-around job."

Amador Valley made the night a clean sweep with wins in the junior varsity and freshman contests. Mark Watkins and Paul Campara each had 10 points to lead the Don JV's to a 52-42 win. The Amador Valley freshmen won, 50-30.

AMADOR VALLEY (53) Kearns 8-2; 18; Hall 4-3; 11; Howard 2-6; 10; Hansen 4-0; 8; DePrater 0-0; 2; Maynard 1-0; 2; Sevo 1-0; 2; Jurgensen 1-0; 2; Noble 0-0; 0; TOTALS 21-11-12, 53.

Cowboys edge SR in thriller

DANVILLE — Darin Johnson's 20-footer fell off the rim at the buzzer, thus giving Livermore High School a stunning 59-57 win over formally undefeated San Ramon in an East Bay Athletic League basketball game here Friday night.

The Pokes almost lost a 57-48 lead with 2:15 left in the game but held on for the win. Livermore is now 2-2 for the year and the Wolves 3-1.

Livermore used an effective zone defense throughout the game which hampered the San Ramon offensive plans.

San Ramon took a 16-12 lead at the first quarter break but the Pokes rallied for a 30-26 halftime advantage. Livermore led 43-36 at the end of three quarters.

The Pokes hit 25 of 38 free throws and SR canned but 13 of 21.

Tim Jenkins led a well-balanced Cowboy attack with 18 points. Mark McCreary and John Farfan each added 12 markers and Brian Schweiger had 11. Fritz Venker led the Wolves with 14 points and John Arnaudon added 10.

Livermore won the junior varsity game 57-35 and the frosh contest 51-39.

Spinks shines

LAS VEGAS — Olympic gold medal winners Leon Spinks of St. Louis and Howard Davis of Glen Cove, N.Y., sparked Saturday in their professional boxing debuts before a national television audience.

Spinks, 23, who won the Olympic light heavyweight title in Montreal, scored a fifth-round technical knockout over Lightning Bob Smith of New York City, and Davis scored an impressive unanimous decision over Jose Resto, also of New York City.

Davis, 134½, won every round on all three judges' cards in the six-round event at the Aladin Hotel.

Davis said the biggest difference from the amateur ranks was pacing himself, adding that he never tried to take Resto out even though he tagged him at will. "I wanted to go six rounds for the work," Davis said.

Resto, 135½, has a record of 12-58-7.

Cal dominates MV

California High School's soccer team played with skill and emotion Friday afternoon in taking a 3-1 decision over visiting Monte Vista in an East Bay Athletic League match in San Ramon.

"We heard that Monte Vista was going to have a party after beating us today," said a happy Grizzly coach Jon Rego after the match. "So we came out really fired up."

That they did.

The Grizzlies totally dominated the match, firing 23 shots on goal to just 10 for the losers. In the first half neither team scored but California had 11 shots to just five for MV.

The second half saw the Grizzlies play even better offensively and against the wind, too.

Roger Hurlow broke the ice for Cal with a five-yard shot from the side on an assist from Chris Nutile. However, the Mustangs came right two minutes later and tied the score on Dave Erdy's nine-yard direct kick.

The tie didn't last long, however.

Bruce Morgan scored two goals for the victors in four minutes, one, a 10-yard shot on an assist from Greg Clark and the other, on a six-yarder off a corner kick by Nutile.

Mike Daugherty of Cal had seven saves in goal while Jeff Bowles of MV garnered eight. Both teams are now 3-6 in EBAL action.

Shots on goal: MV 10, Cal 23. Fouls: MV 7, Cal 6. Offsides: MV 0, Cal 3. Total saves: Monte Vista 8, Cal 7. (Six minutes elapsed): C — Hurlow 5 yards, assist from Nutile (5 minutes); C — Morgan 10 yards, assist from Clark (12 minutes); C — Morgan 6 yards, assist from Nutile, (16 minutes). Individual saves: Daugherty, C, 7; Bowles, MV, 8.

AV's Potts in finals

SAN LEANDRO — Steve Potts was the only valley wrestler to make the finals of the Pacific High School Wrestling Invitational here last night.

Potts, from Amador Valley High School, wrestled against San Lorenzo's Florez in the 105-pound finals.

Earlier in the day, Potts defeated Forrester of Castro Valley, Berkeley's Bledsoe and Marks of Encinal to reach the finals.

Amador Valley and Foothill were both entered in the tournament, which ran throughout the day culminated with last night's finals.

Other Amador Valley wrestlers winning at least two matches on the day were Jim Collie, a 167-pounder, 97-pound Mark Hanna, 177-pounder Eric Larson, and heavyweight Whetcliff.

Ernie Zumbach of the Dons also wrestled for fifth place in the 193-pound division, while Foothill's Jim Rowen made it to the consolation finals of the 105-pound class before losing to San Lorenzo's Lam.

DVC belts Laney

OAKLAND — By strict definition, basketball is a non-contact sport.

But such was not the case Friday night when the Laney College Eagles and Gerry Jones' Viking cagers of Diablo Valley College faced each other in Golden Gate Conference action.

The end result was a 95-81 win for DVC, along with some bumps, bruises, and bad words exchanged along the way.

The win was DVC's seventh of its season, and equalled the total amount of games the Vikings won all last year.

The first half was a quiet one, although also one in which a spectator could easily blink one's eyes and miss the sight of someone scoring.

John Green led the Vikings with 25 points and 14 rebounds. Paul Richardson added 22 points.

Marshall Rogers

Working full-time

Rogers (11) goes for ball

By Dave Weber

OAKLAND — When Yellow Cab went out of business in San Francisco recently, flocks of independent gypsy jitneys screamed in to fill the void.

Marshall Rogers, the Golden State Warriors' one-man taxi squad would've felt right at home behind the wheel of one of those bargain brand cabs. Twice this season the National Basketball Association club has lost one of its power forwards to injury and twice Rogers has been saved from the enigmatic existence of a non-playing reserve.

With Dwight Davis on the sidelines to start the season, Marshall began on the active list and in early December brought his wife, Jonetta, out from Chicago. The next day, Rogers was cut when Davis returned to the roster.

There's no bitterness involved. "I knew all the time I'd only be practicing," said Rogers after his first game since being reactivated Tuesday night. "They told me way back in October that I wouldn't be playing this season. I was ready for what happened in December two months before."

So, Rogers, drawing a non-contract salary from the Warriors, relaxed at his rented home in Hayward and toured the college gym circuit

St. Mary's, Cal, etc. — with former Bear guard Ricky Hawthorne.

"I was livin' like Riley," he smiled. "But, I'd rather be hustlin'."

When the Warriors were at home, Marshall worked out with the club and watched the games from a seat several rows up in the Coliseum Arena stands.

"I told him we wanted him back next year if nothing else came along," explains Warrior coach Al Attles. Nothing else came along. According to Rogers, the NCAA scoring champ last year at Pan American, no other club made an effort to pick him up.

"They already had their teams set, I guess," said Rogers, loathe to sublimate his desire to play for the Warriors in favor of using degree in history to teach school.

Then Derrek Dickey broke his ankle in a game at San Antonio and Attles began what turned out to be a fruitless search for a big man to fill in during his absence. The Warriors all but signed an alumnus, 6-10 Clyde Lee, but the Philadelphia 76ers, still paying off a multi-year contract, wanted the Warriors to assume too much of their financial obligation to Lee.

So, eventually, it came back to Rogers. Told Tuesday morning that he'd play Tuesday night, Marshall was one of the few bright spots in a dismal 129-121 loss to Detroit. In ten minutes of playing time he scored eight points and added an assist and a rebound.

"For a guy who hadn't been playing," Attles lamented, "He was a lot better than the guys who've been playing."

Entering the game with four minutes to go in the third quarter, Rogers hit a 21-foot set shot and seconds later, drove, missed, got the ball back in the right corner off a pass from Charles Dudley and connected again from outside. Later, he put moves on towering Bob Lanier and Phil Sellers to pick up a couple more hoops.

But Leon Douglas smashed one of his shots into the floor and Rogers got trapped in the corner to cause a 24-second violation prompting Attles to replace him with starter Phil Smith, despite a generous Piston lead.

Those are rookie mistakes that vanish with experience. As a real concern, Marshall looks to his defense, a slighted facet of the game while at Pan-Am. "All the players are so much quicker here, if you leave them alone for one step they're gone," he pointed out. Overweight from a relative lack of activity, Rogers has had to rely on using his stocky build to keep opponents away from the ball.

He'll get some activity in the NBA soon and when he does it may be out of the taxi and into the limo.

Gaels stun Livermore, 3-1

By Brian Martin

The giant-killers are loose, but don't tell Eugene Cassvan about it.

The Dublin soccer coach, after watching his Gaels completely dominate the game in a 3-1 upset of Livermore Friday, shrugged, "I don't care if we're giants or midgets. We should've beaten Livermore last time out."

The Gaels, who at 5-4 ride a wing and a prayer for a shot at the East Bay Athletic League title, have taken up the role of the spoiler by knocking off the 'Pokes, who fell two points behind leader Foothill at 5-2-2.

But Livermore has an immediate chance to jump right back into the confusing title picture next Friday when they visit (who else?) the Foothill Falcons.

"I blame myself for anything else for this loss," said a dejected Livermore coach Dennis Rashe afterwards. "That tie against Granada gave our kids the wrong type of attitude during practice this week. If we would have beaten Granada it would be different."

"The kids know what they have to do now," said Rashe. "We play Foothill Friday."

The Gaels battered the Livermore fullbacks for three goals after the 'Pokes jumped out to a 1-0 lead just ten minutes into the game.

The goal itself was partly a fluke, as Livermore's Mike Miller booted a bounding ball from 25 yards out on the right side. Perhaps intended to be a center pass, the ball bounced by drawn-out Dublin goalie Rusty Allen and through the open net without being touched. Cowboy forwards Billy Hunt and Wes Settle were on hand at the goal to peck the ball through in case it went off to the side.

Cassvan, most likely confused and upset after that initial goal, later said he felt "absolutely nothing. You've got 70 minutes of play, and the last thing you want to do is worry."

Cassvan, who pointed out the play of Art Bayless, Lee Cheranich, Bob Klein, Jorge Garrett, Robin Moss, Luke Bryant and Allen as sparkplugs to the win, said of his team's previous meeting with Livermore as "the only real game we got beat all year."

Yesterday's show against the 'Pokes was a drastic turnaround.

Luke Bryant got the Dublin machine rolling with five minutes to go in the half, scoring on a ten-yard boot out of a crowd in front of the net. Bryant was almost on his back while kicking the ball.

Kevin Dick got goal number two three minutes into the second half, taking a lead pass from Dave Alvarez and firing the ball in from the left side past befuddled Livermore goalie Rick Wood.

12 minutes later, Robin Moss slapped a shot over the heads of nearly all of Livermore's fullbacks and the ball skirted over the outstretched hands of Wood. A high, looping kick that completed the afternoon's scoring.

What a mess

This is Granada High School's soccer field after its sprinklers went off Thursday night, causing the postponement of Friday's soccer match between Granada and Amador Valley. Both teams are in contention for the East Bay Athletic League title.

SR finally scores

Falcons romp, 6-1, in first

DANVILLE — San Ramon High school's soccer team finally scored a goal. However, Foothill, who leads the East Bay Athletic League, scored six times in thrashing the Wolves, 6-1, here Friday.

San Ramon, which hasn't won in 10 overall tries, including eight shutouts, scored 14 minutes into the second half. It was the first time since mid-November when Dan Chavez tallied in a losing cause against Marina High that the wolves scored.

The Wolves' Peter Evans, who's been playing the game for three years, pushed the ball across and under the outstretched Dave Konecny.

It brought a smile to coach Bob Balcalda's face.

"He(Evans) tried and he scored," Walcalda said of Evans' score.

"We'll take them anyway we can get them. I just told the kids to shoot anywhere on the field."

Which Foothill did. Especially in the first half. The Falcons, now 7-2, were led by Bruno Dulalier's hat trick. Dulalier, who scored twice in the opening half, registered his tenth, eleventh and twelfth points of the season.

Also contributing to the Falcon runaway were Dave Laudenbach, Paul Schaut and Bob Byrd.

Laudenbach opened the scoring as early as three minutes into the match. The Falcon back scored his eighth goal of the season on a breakaway from five yards.

Schaut, meanwhile, with an assist from left wing John Zinder, scored from 12 yards on minute later.

Foothill, employing a fluid and flowing offensive attack, improved its advantage to 3-0. Laudenbach centered to Bob Byrd, who hooked a drive into the upper nets. The play covered 18 yards.

A tripping penalty set up Foothill's fourth goal. It also signaled the end of Wolves' goal tender Bill Heffernan.

Heffernan was ejected after moving twice — and arguing — in three attempts on a 12 yard direct penalty kick. Dulalier eventually hit at 16 minutes before Heffernan was gone.

Dulalier put the visitors up 5-0 at the half. The sparkling striker successfully scored from 2 yards at 20 minutes on an indirect line drive kick.

Dulalier completed the afternoon's scoring, going one on one with SR goalie Eric Austad before the former hit from eight yards at 19 minutes.

With the win, Keith Sweet's club remains in first place with 21 goals while yielding only seven — the fewest among EBAL teams.

Wujek's play sparks Mats

By Brian Martin

Joey Wujek played like Superman Friday night, soaring over the boards for 26 rebounds, including 18 in the first half, as Granada hung on to escape with a 61-59 win over Monte Vista in an East Bay Athletic League Basketball contest in Livermore.

Wujek's heroics weren't the only factor that carried the Mats, now 3-1, over the scrappy 2-2 Mustangs. Forward Dan Lambert, who tied Wujek for scoring honors with 18 points, scored 11 markers in the third period to keep the winners from letting the game get into Monte Vista's hands.

The Mustangs, after falling behind 16-8 in the first quarter, looked from the bottom up all evening, never able to catch up to the Mats, but coming to within one point on two occasions in the second half.

"The game was played in spurts by both teams," said Monte Vista coach Rich Jones in the locker room following the game. "They just had one ore spurt."

That last spurt by the Mats proved to be successful. Leading 49-41 after three quarters, Lambert pitched in a jumper opening the final stanza to give them a 1-point lead. However, the Mustangs rattled off a 7-0 spree, with Steve Jayco getting five points, to cut it down to 51-48 with 5:26 to play.

The teams traded baskets in pairs for the next four minutes before Labert drove to the inside for Granada and canned a lay-in with 51 to go, giving Granada a 59-53 lead.

Time for an MV spurt. Consecutive field goals by Jayco and Bob Devincenzi cut the lead back down to 59-57 with 24 to go. But Steve Waldera came right back downcourt for Granada to sink a wide-open lay-in in front of the sleeping MV defense to cinch the win.

Wujek probably would have grabbed even more rebounds had he not picked up his fourth personal foul late in the fourth quarter. The Mats, leading 45-38 at the time, hiked their leadback up to ten points when Scott Morton, subbing for Wujek, hit a field goal and charity toss to keep the Mats safely in front.

Unprecedented

Crow Canyon CC, a whole lifestyle

ELEGANT CROW CANYON COUNTRY CLUB ... Highlighting the many recreational amenities offered at Broadmoor Homes soon to open at Crow Canyon, a private recreational community of 1,028 homes in the Danville foothills, is Crow Canyon Country Club. Members will enjoy 13 lighted tennis courts, an 18 hole, par 69 champion golf course, A.A.U. Competition swimming pool, and a 34,000 square foot clubhouse that overlooks the dramatic valley. Prices for the homes are projected from $65,000 to $105,000.

Roger Maltbie and Sandy Mayer, two of the hottest young names in professional golf and tennis, were on hand at the official ground breaking ceremonies for private Crow Canyon Clubhouse part of an $80 million master-planned recreational community on Crow Canyon Road just east of Interstate 680 near Danville.

Broadmoor Homes, for two decades one of the nation's most respected builders of new homes, is undertaking the unusual project, which is virtually unprecedented in Northern California, according to Broadmoor president Richard B. Smith. "The golf, tennis and country club will occupy some 120 acres of the 431 acre community," said Smith. "Additionally, nearly 100 more acres will be devoted to neighborhood parks, six heated pools, and open space...."

The 6,200 yard layout was designed by noted golf course architect Theodore G. Robinson. Robinson has designed over 60 courses around the world.

Broadmoor is presently building in excess of 1,000 homes at Crow Canyon Country Club. The private community will have a 24-hour attended main entry gate and two card operated secondary gates. Three distinct types of homes will be offered, with prices tentatively projected from $65,000 to $115,000. The ground breaking ceremonies for the model homes is slated for sometime this month and will be ready for inspection.

Slipper Rock grad

VCSD names pretty rec official

DUBLIN — Beauty, brains and experience are three reasons why Christine Schnitzer has been selected by the Valley Community Services District to fill the position of Recreation Supervisor at Shannon Park Community Center.

There were 38 applicants.

Schnitzer graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree from Slippery Rock State College. It is located between Pittsburgh and Erie, Pennsylvania.

"Everyone laughs at the name of the college but it is a neat school and a beautiful place," Schnitzer said. "Primarily, it is noted for turning out recreation leaders, elementary, special education and physical education teachers."

She concentrated on

learning to be a recreation leader. After graduation, she taught health, physical education and worked as a recreation leader at various times. Schnitzer has now acquired her California teaching credentials.

"I love it here," she said. "Our home is in Dublin."

Her duties for VCSD at Shannon Park include helping set up an aquatics program.

"We're offering two programs," she said. "One is lap swimming to promote adult fitness. The other is recreation swimming for the entire family."

Schnitzer is compiling a spring brochure listing adult and children's classes that should begin around March 14, she said.

She is responsible for overseeing activities at Shannon Center.

"There is so much going on here in our center. It's amazing that Brian May, the senior recreation director, has been able to carry the load alone as far as directing recreational activities. He has done a great job. In fact, everyone here at the center is great. They really pitch in and help."

She said her first goal was to get oriented.

"I have already seen a lot the department has done in the past to offer citizens top quality recreational benefits. I hope to build on that. I would like to keep the instructors we have and keep adding to the staff and the activities."

Another goal of hers is to build community interest in what is available at the center.

"I really want to get people involved with what is going on at the center."

She said there were new specific programs in the works for spring and summer sessions.

Foothill's seniors form plans

PLEASANTON — Foothill High School senior class members and the administration are organizing a senior activities program which combines the best ideas of other schools with the imagination and special interests of the Foothill community.

Joan Mackay, as assistant principal, has provided the administrative leadership in organizing a parent/ student committee to aid in planning.

A senior picnic was held last October at Uvas Meadows south of Morgan Hill with 220 in attendance.

Coming up is the senior breakfast, scheduled Monday, Feb. 14 with the junior class hosting.

The senior class dance is scheduled Jan. 14. Dr. Don Rose, a KFRC disc jockey, will emcee the fund-raiser.

Also planned are a senior banquet, to be held in the spring and sponsored by senior parents; senior ball, May 21 at Hs Lordships in Berkeley (followed by breakfast served by parents from 4 to 7 a.m. in Pleasanton); all-night trip to Disneyland in Anaheim on June 9; senior awards presentation on June 7; baccalaureate on Sunday, June 12.

Graduation is tentatively scheduled for Saturday, June 18 at 11 a.m. This is contingent on the school having bleachers installed by that time.

The State Department then cabled U.S. consulates in Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo, and Recife, and the American Embassy in Brasilia, instructing them to contact the stranded U.S. students and direct them to Youth for Understanding's national organization in Brazil for free transportation home.

The return flights are scheduled to arrive in Detroit Jan. 18 and Jan. 25.

Under YFU, international students from 24 countries in Europe, Latin America, Africa, and the Far East (ages 14-18) come to the United States and live with American families while attending school here.

Student exchange rescues stranded group in Brazil

Youth for Understanding, the largest international student exchange program in the United States in terms of student numbers, has announced that it will supply free return transportation for up to 25 U.S. students stranded in Brazil after the collapse of another student exchange organization.

The students, participants in an unrelated exchange program, were unable to return to the United States when the sponsoring organization indicated financial insolvency.

Youth for Understanding contacted the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Cultural Affairs, offering to make available space on Youth for Understanding flights from Brazil to Detroit.

The State Department then cabled U.S. consulates in Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo, and Recife, and the American Embassy in Brasilia, instructing them to contact the stranded U.S. students and direct them to Youth for Understanding's national organization in Brazil for free transportation home.

The return flights are scheduled to arrive in Detroit Jan. 18 and Jan. 25.

City launches ski program

PLEASANTON — Those little white flakes in the mountain have meant that the Department of Recreation and Human Resources has put its ski program into action.

A $2 Ski Lift membership card will entitle people to participate in the program which provides group transportation and discount ski prices to community residents. The card also will entitle the holder to discounts at several local ski shops.

A series of eight Wednesday trips to Boreal are scheduled beginning Jan. 26. It is hoped many adults will take advantage of this opportunity to ski during the less crowded weekday. Cost per day, including transportation and lift ticket, is $20.

Several trips are planned for Saturdays to accommodate teens and adults. Participants must be at least 13 years old or in the seventh grade unless accompanied by a parent. Trips to Boreal are scheduled Jan. 29 and Feb. 5. Fee is $20. An excursion to Sugar Bowl is planned March 12; trip fee is $25.

A ski holiday is planned Feb. 18 through 21 at Heavenly Valley. Transportation and lodging will be included in the $45 trip fee.

Other adult arts classes include oil painting, life drawing workshop, ceramics, sculpture and tile painting.

The department's winter brochure delivered to local residences recently has more information about classes.

Ski registration packets are available at the Department of Recreation and Human Resources, 200 Bernal Ave. All trips are on a first come, first serve basis with payment of fees necessary to reserve a spot.

The Chabot College Career Planning and Development Center in Hayward will present a series of programs during the current month, February and March, focusing on employment opportunities and educational programs in business.

The series is free and designed primarily for adults in the community and evening students at the college.

Scheduled hours for each program are from 6 to 8 p.m. The Career Planning and Development Center is located in the counseling and guidance area of Building 100 at the campus, 25555 Hesperian Blvd., Hayward.

The initial program is Thursday, Jan. 27 and deals with accounting, with Charles Hammond as faculty advisor.

Future programs include real estate, Feb. 2 with Jimmie Ong; clerical business skills, Feb. 9 with Norma Moore; data processing, Feb. 17 with Larry Beal; merchandising and sales, March 2 with Mark Jones; supervision, March 9 with Don Green.

Board members convene at 7:30 p.m. in Building 200. A report on enrollments for winter quarter, awarding of bid for radio test equipment, adoption of a civil defense and emergency preparedness plan and several certificated and classified matters are also scheduled.
